

Title I, Part A School-Level Parent and Family Engagement Policy

This policy describes the means for carrying out designated Title I, Part A parent and family engagement requirements pursuant to ESSA Section 1116(c).

Each school served under this part shall jointly develop with, and distribute to, parents and family members of participating children a written parent and family engagement policy, agreed on by such parents, that shall describe the means for carrying out the requirements of subsections (c) through (f). How are parents notified of the policy in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, provided in a language the parents can understand? How is the policy made available to the local community? How and when is the policy updated periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school (ESSA Section 1116[b][1])?

La Paloma has developed a written Title I parental involvement policy with input from Title I parents. Input was gathered during the Title I training as well as during the development and review of the Single Plan for Student Achievement. The policy has been distributed to parents of Title I students in the informational materials sent home at the beginning of the school year. The policy describes the means for carrying out the following Title I parental involvement requirements [20 USC 6318 Section 1118(a)-(f) inclusive].

To involve parents in the Title I, Part A programs, the following practices have been established:

- All meetings involving parents are offered during the school day, after school or and are supported with childcare supervision and interpreters.

The school convenes an annual meeting to inform parents about Title I, Part A requirements and about the right of parents to be involved in the Title I, Part A program (ESSA Section 1116[c][1]).

- Coffee & Conversation with the Principal /Title 1 Parent Meeting - Thursday, October 29 @ 8:15am

The school offers a flexible number of meetings for Title I, Part A parents, such as meetings in the morning or evening (ESSA Section 1116[c][2]). Add details about the meetings in the box below:
