PREGNANCY LEAVE INFORMATION FOR CERTIFICATED EMPLOYEES

Procedures:

Notify the Benefits/Risk Management Specialist in Human Resources regarding your due date. Your notification should include the attending physician's statement indicating your probable date of delivery.

After you have submitted your notification, the District will evaluate your eligibility for Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA), California Family Rights Act (CFRA), Pregnancy Disability Leave (PDL). In order to be eligible for FMLA and Child Bonding/CFRA leave you must have been employed with the District for at least 12 months prior to the leave

California law provides that employees are entitled up to four (4) months of paid pregnancy disability leave for the period of time during which the employee is disabled on account of pregnancy, childbirth, or related conditions. Pregnancy disability leave can be taken before and after childbirth, and requires a statement from your attending physician indicating the period you are unable to work. Pregnancy disability leave is coordinated with Family Medical Leave, California Family Rights Act.

Sick Leave:

During your pregnancy disability, your available sick leave is used. After you have used all of your sick leave, your pay will be deducted the cost of a substitute during your remaining pregnancy disability leave. Sick leave and substitute differential are not deducted on non- work days. It is your responsibility to inform your site secretary and principal of your maternity leave dates and absence in put in Frontline.

Options After Pregnancy Disability Leave:

After your pregnancy disability leave ends, your options are:

1. Return to work
2. Request a leave of absence (See below)
3. Resign

Leaves of Absence After Pregnancy Disability Leave:

- ✓ Balance of Unpaid Family Medical Leave (12 weeks), if applicable
  - Runs concurrently with PDL
  - Paid using your sick time. Once sick time is exhausted you are paid at sub- differential rate. (Daily rate minus sub rate, refer to the FETA contract).

- ✓ Child Bonding Leave (FETA Article 4.15) CFRA
  - Starts after PDL (Doctor has released you to return to work)
  - Up to 12 work weeks in a 12-month period.
  - Can be taken all at one time or intermittently (minimum of 2 weeks at a time - FETA Article 4.15).
  - Paid using your sick time. Once sick time is exhausted you are paid at sub- differential rate. (daily rate minus sub rate)

- ✓ Unpaid Child Rearing Leave (FETA Article 4.12)
  - Unpaid leave
  - During unpaid leaves employees are not eligible to receive any benefits such as insurance, retirement benefits etc. unless the employee pays the premiums himself/herself as required by the insurance carrier
